

MICRONESIA

September 19 to 26, 2026

We are going back for some of the best diving in the world aboard the Truk Odyssey. These dates are for the Odyssey only and do not include travel dates to be determined. Because of the travel distance, in the past we have coupled this trip with a second destination - Palau. This time we are looking at other destinations such as Yap, the Philippines or Palau again. We will design the trip so the diver can do one or both of the destinations.
